The London Times professes to give the provisions of the French and Russian alliance, and draws the most threatening conwith disdain.

The French troops were landing at Genoa, in large numbers, and were enthusiastic. The Tuscan army called on the Grand Duke to join France and Piedmont, and declare war against Austria. He declined and fled, whereupon the army declared a Military Dictatorship.

Warlike preparations were going on in England. The Government has chartered the Cunard Steamers, and other vessels to convey troops and ammunition to the Mediceraneau. Rumors prevailed of a proclama-
